

Let's face it, whether you are a casual cyclist or a hard-core cyclist both are immersing yourselves in the active. Pedal Aussie is creating active new brain pathways with great experiences. Pedal Aussie active adventuring is tied to the Australian landscape. Adventure Exploration for itchy-footed Australians. The pandemic restrictions highlighted personal issues with the lack of freedom. This does not sit well with us. Australians like to travel. Australians do want to travel. Travel is now a privilege.

Pedal Aussie anticipates people's desire to meet family and friends. Bring along a sibling and have a shared memory that is special to you. Cyclist touring may be intimidating. Australians want confidence they are not going to be sick. The travel costs are not to outweigh the benefits. Here is your chance to redefine yourself. Reconnect you with the planet.

Experience the raw and unfiltered bike tour linking the landscape of the Tropic of Capricorn, The Outback, and the Tropical North. One hell of a spectacular trip. Blue skies, abundant wildlife, red dirt, friendly people, and wide brown open spaces. Fabulous sunrises and sunsets.

The daylight in between with the wheels on the road, feet on the pedals. The gentle circular motion cadence rhythm tuning the music of the dance. The low impact play of the wheels spinning, the chain humming, the cogs turning, and you lost in a wonderful, delicious dream.

Just the thought of being on a bike for a period, being sweaty with lycra may be out of your comfort zone. Dr George Sheehan says that "Sweat is the internal shower." Getting sweaty is one thing but getting sweaty in lycra brings Pedal Aussie's tour to a whole new level. External hot shower from time to time is welcomed. Some people have a pathologically hatred of camping. Basically, you just get used to it. My father taught us to camp well, and I have always loved camping.

Bicycling is not all that there is. Bicycle activity not only a great trip away and with friends but also stimulates blood circulation, burns those unwanted calories and good for core and stabilisers. Be fitter have better moods, more relaxed and stress free. Live longer, have an amazing waistline, awesome butt and strong legs.

We start somewhere and we go somewhere. Pedal Aussie's tour experience is of benefit to you with the best of the destinations. No planes, buses to catch, no intricate schedules. The benefits are inbuilt with your moments of truth, and yours to treasure and keep.

The bicycle road trip generates clarity. The aim is for you to have an exciting and memorable tour. There is a challenge. The scope of daily activity is high.

You and you alone are to accept the challenge, or not.

The responsibility is yours and yours alone.

I will guide you as best able.

I have had both solo and group. Either satisfied me.

Both groups have their points of view.

There are undeniable benefits of an organised group touring party.

It is not just the quiet blue sky, the vast open landscape, the wildlife, but it is also you on your way.

The benefits are hard to refute. Contest if you must.
Inside knowledge, shared experience, independent mind-set,
wilderness, hiking, camping, and birdwatching.
Not something, by myself I would have enjoyed nearly as much.

With the pace of modern living, people are even more worried about speed.
On tap is instant gratification. Human information is all around us.
Bicycle taps that human information at a slower pace.
A pace that we can reconnect and readjust to our world.

Pedal Aussie presents best in each camp and town experience.
The Pedal Aussie Buddy System has a discrete way of looking out for each other.
Pedal Aussie aims to avoid the risk of falsely accusing local people for whatever reason.
Pedal Aussie aims to minimise stirring up trouble along the way.
We want heavenly treat of a day, off the beaten path.
We want to stimulate all your senses, daily, forever daily.

The schedule is determined however not fixed in stone.
The start and end dates will be met.
International and Australian interstate visitors please note the covid section.
It is your responsibility keep up to date with the details relevant to you.
No refunds will apply.

My intention is to enjoy the ride.
I do hope you will as well.